Amendment No. 3.—To amend Section twenty of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section twenty: The Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say: Regulating the jurisdiction and duties of the Justices of the Peace; for the punishment of crimes and misdemeanors; regulating the practice of courts of justice; providing for changing the venue in civil and criminal cases; granting divorces; changing the names of persons; vacating roads, town plots, streets, alleys, and public squares; summoning and compelling grand and petit juries, and providing for their compensation; regulating county and township business; regulating the election of county and township officers; for the assessment and collection of taxes for State, county and township purposes; providing for opening and conducting elections of State, county or township officers, and designating the places of voting; providing for the sale of real estate or personal property belonging to minors or other persons under legal disabilities; giving effect to invalid deeds, wills or other instruments; refunding money paid into the State Treasury, or into the treasury of any county; releasing the indebtedness, liability or obligation of any corporation, association or person to the State, or to any county, town or city of this State. But nothing in this section shall be construed to deny or restrict the power of the Legislature to establish and regulate the compensation and fees of county and township officers; to establish and regulate the rates of freight, passage, toll, and charges of railroads, toll-roads, ditch, flume and tunnel companies incorporated under the laws of this State or doing business therein.

Amendment No. 4.—To amend Section thirty-three of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section thirty-three: The members of the Legislature shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law, and paid out of the public treasury; but no increase of such compensation shall take effect during the term for which the members of either house shall have been elected; provided, that an appropriation may be made for the payment of such actual expenses as members of the Legislature may incur for postage, express charges, newspapers and stationery, not exceeding the sum of sixty dollars, for any general or special session, to each member; and furthermore provided, that the Speaker of the Senate shall each, during the time of their actual attendance as such presiding officers, receive an additional allowance of two dollars per diem.

Amendment No. 5.—To amend Section seventeen of Article V, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada by entirely repealing and striking out the same.

Amendment No. 6.—To amend Section thirty-two of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section thirty-two: The Legislature shall have power to increase, diminish, consolidate or abolish the following county officers: County Clerks, County Recorders, Auditors, Sheriffs, District Attorneys, County Surveyors, Public Administrators and Superintendent of Schools. The Legislature shall provide for their election by the people, and fix by law their duties and compensation. County Clerks shall be ex-officio Clerks of the Courts of Record and of the Boards of County Commissioners in and for their respective counties.

Amendment No. 7.—To amend Section eighteen of Article V, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section eighteen: In case of the impeachment of the Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the duties of the said office, resignation or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the President of the Senate for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease; and in case of the impeachment of the President of the Senate while acting as Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the duties of the said office, resignation or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the Speaker of the Assembly for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. But when the Governor shall, with the consent of the Legislature, be out of the State in time of war, and at the head of any military force thereof, he shall continue to exercise the powers and duties of the office.

Amendment No. 8.—To amend Section seventeen of Article V, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada by entirely repealing and striking out the same.

Amendment No. 9.—To amend Section thirty-two of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section thirty-two: The Legislature shall have power to increase, diminish, consolidate or abolish the following county officers: County Clerks, County Recorders, Auditors, Sheriffs, District Attorneys, County Surveyors, Public Administrators and Superintendent of Schools. The Legislature shall provide for their election by the people, and fix by law their duties and compensation. ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT

Monday the 11th day of Feb'y.

A. D. 1889, at Curry Engine House, Carson City, Carson Precinct, and at The Old Post Office Building, Empire City, Empire Precinct, in the County of Ormsby, State of Nevada, an election will be held between the hours of Eight o'clock A. M., and Six o'clock P. M., of said day, for the adoption or rejection by the qualified voters of the State, of the following proposed Amendments to the Constitution thereof, to-wit:—

Amendment No. 1.—To amend Section two of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section two: The members of the Legislature shall be elected, and shall commence on the third Monday of January next ensuing the election of members of the Assembly, unless the Governor of the State shall, in the interim, convene the Legislature by proclamation.

Amendment No. 2.—To amend Section six of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section six: Each House shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings, and may punish its members for disorderly conduct and, with the concurrence of two-thirds of all members elected, expel a member.

Amendment No. 3.—To amend Section twenty of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section twenty: The Legislature shall not pass local or special laws in any of the following enumerated cases, that is to say: Regulating the jurisdiction and duties of the Justices of the Peace; for the punishment of crimes and misdemeanors; regulating the practice of courts of justice; providing for changing the venue in civil and criminal cases; granting divorces; changing the names of persons; vacating roads, town plots, streets, alleys, and public squares; summoning and compelling grand and petit juries, and providing for their compensation; regulating county and township business; regulating the election of county and township officers; for the assessment and collection of taxes for State, county and township purposes; providing for opening and conducting elections of State, county or township officers, and designating the places of voting; providing for the sale of real estate or personal property belonging to minors or other persons under legal disabilities; giving effect to invalid deeds, wills or other instruments; refunding money paid into the State Treasury, or into the treasury of any county; releasing the indebtedness, liability or obligation of any corporation, association or person to the State, or to any county, town or city of this State. But nothing in this section shall be construed to deny or restrict the power of the Legislature to establish and regulate the compensation and fees of county and township officers; to establish and regulate the rates of freight, passage, toll, and charges of railroads, toll-roads, ditch, flume and tunnel companies incorporated under the laws of this State or doing business therein.

Amendment No. 4.—To amend Section thirty-three of Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section thirty-three: The members of the Legislature shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law, and paid out of the public treasury; but no increase of such compensation shall take effect during the term for which the members of either house shall have been elected; provided, that an appropriation may be made for the payment of such actual expenses as members of the Legislature may incur for postage, express charges, newspapers and stationery, not exceeding the sum of sixty dollars, for any general or special session, to each member; and furthermore provided, that the Speaker of the Senate shall each, during the time of their actual attendance as such presiding officers, receive an additional allowance of two dollars per diem.
